

Mary O'Malley

Mary O'Malley is a speaker, author and counselor in private practice in Kirkland, Washington. Her work focuses on curiosity, compassion, trust, and the ability to be with whatever is showing up in our lives in a spacious and attentive way.

In the early 1970's, she experienced an awakening where she saw through the struggles of the mind, making contact with the joy and the wonder of being fully awake to Life. Since then she has dedicated her life to inviting others into the healing and the creativity that come from being fully present for Life. Through her organization, Awakening, she has evolved a transformational approach to working with everything that keeps us from being present for our lives.

Mary has taught extensively since the early 1980's, speaking, leading retreats, doing individual counseling, and offering ongoing groups where people can come together to experience the miracle of awakening. Her strengths lie in her ability to be fully present in the moment, integrating information, technique and insight with simplicity and compassion.

Awakening

We all have a deep hunger to reconnect with what Joseph Campbell, author of The Power of Myth, calls "the rapture of being alive". Yet most of us, most of the time, are lost in the struggle of trying to make ourselves and our lives different. In this struggle, we become disconnected from the present moment which holds all that we yearn for.

Awakening is dedicated to inviting people into deep connection and a sense of belonging to themselves and to their lives. By teaching people how to cultivate curiosity, compassion and trust, they become present to their lives and in that presence, are healed and become a healing force in the world.

Molokai, Hawaii

February 19-25, 2012

The Retreat

Do you dream of a time of deep relaxation and renewal? Do you long to enjoy the beauty and peace of nature, to play in the warm sun of a tropical paradise? This retreat offers you all of this and more. The smells, the colors, the sounds and the wildlife all conspire to invite you back into the magical presence of life.

This is an invitation to take time out of your busy schedule to reconnect with yourself and with life. It is a true gift to yourself, and there is no better setting than the Hawaiian Islands, where life makes love to life.

The focus of the retreat is on learning how to show up for whatever life brings in each moment. In that process, we will have times of silence and times of exploring together ideas and skills that invite us back into life. We will share both our wisdom and the challenges of learning to quiet our minds and open our hearts.

There will be some meditation. The emphasis, however, is not on meditation techniques, but rather on using meditation practices to experience each moment of our lives more fully.
