about 97% of scientists believe that PK and other abilities are possible. The book Science and Psychic Phenomena: The Fall of the House of Skeptics by Chris Carter is the best description of the power politics behind this.

Applying the principles described in Inner Vegas, many people enjoy consistent success way above luck on slots and dice over many years of play. We often are able to achieve wins that would only occur once in thousands of times by chance. We have had a roulette win that would be a billion to one by chance and some slot wins that would occur only once in millions by chance. A specific example from my own experience is as follows: After a long day of teaching in Vegas, I went off by myself to unwind. I also had a specific goal in mind—to get a Royal Flush in hearts (Ace, King, Queen, Jack, and Ten of Hearts in one hand) on a video poker machine. I selected this target to confirm the power of the heart, which is that love can accomplish any goal. Just as I put my money in the machine, several members of my class found me in my hiding place. They asked if I would show them how to play. From ego I might have pleaded for privacy, instead I opened my heart and said, “Sure”. When they settled down, I focused on my machine and two pulls later was rewarded with my Royal Flush in hearts. This jackpot occurs only once in 160,000 times by chance. My five dollar bet paid me about $4,300.

One of the beauties of using casinos as a training classroom is that feedback is immediate and clear, something which is rare in life. In the casino, if you are in an open-hearted state, connected strongly with both here-now present moment earth energy and also with the highest energies of spirit, and feeling grateful, joyful and generous, you are often rewarded with money within seconds. If you are in ego, worried about past or future, feeling fear or greed, you will usually be punished immediately by loss. This rapid feedback trains one quickly in a more enlightened way to live, shows without doubt the power of the heart, and makes it easier to apply these principles at home for health, wealth, happiness, and positive contribution to your community. I have learned that in all areas of life, not just casinos, that fear is expensive, love is priceless, and how important it is to choose wisely! ©
